

Thinking About Helping Someone Get to College?

Become a Site Director With Let's Get Ready!

Deadline: March 26th 2010

Let's Get Ready's mission is to empower high school students in underserved communities in the college application process. This includes intensive SAT preparation, career exploration questions, a SAT registration workshop, and picking target schools to apply too. The success of LGR in the past has been built on the relationships between the college-aged coaches, who have just gone through the admissions process, and the high school students who they inspire.

Two Directors will work on site to facilitate a free Let's Get Ready college access program for high school students in the following areas:

New England Region:

Boston, MA
Dorchester, MA
Revere, MA
Lawrence, MA
Worcester, MA
New Haven, CT
Bridgeport, CT
Brockton, CT

Mid Atlantic Region:

Brooklyn, NY
Bronx, NY,
Manhattan, NY
Mount Vernon, NY
New Rochelle, NY
Queens, NY
White Plains, NY
Summit, NJ
Stamford, CT

Interested in applying to be a Director for Summer 2010? Contact the following people for more information:

Mid- Atlantic Region:

Contact Sneha Subramanian
Program Manager
ssubramanian@letsgetready.org
(646) 808-2765

New England Region:

Contact Matt Boyce
Program Manager
mboyce@letsgetready.org
(617) 345-0080

The Responsibilities of a Let's Get Ready Site Director Include:

DIRECTOR

The LGR Site Directors are dynamic and motivated undergraduate students who direct the LGR program from recruitment of students and coaches to implementation and delivery of services.

Responsibilities:

- Develop a strategic plan to recruit coaches and high school students.
- Manage program operations.
- Facilitate relationships between students and coaches.
- Lead training meetings and group discussions.
- Participate in leadership training opportunities.
- Complete general program maintenance tasks.
- Develop a major college exploration project within the program.

Director Salary: $1750-$2250